

Fleet safety issues

Truck Safe-Australian Trucking Association

Seating / vibration

Social functions

Headlights on at all times, is this a worthwhile practice

Mobile phones, just do not use while driving

Tracking devices, tachographs

Load restraint practices and training

Pre-employment medicals, tailored to the real requirement of the job

Accident analysis

Inductions

Light vehicle / heavy vehicle / 4wd training-What really works?

Licence checks, initial and annual? Commitment to maintain licence as condition of employment, notify employer if lose licence.

Counselling after incidents

Fatigue management

Tyre selection and maintenance

Drink driving

Drug driving

Aggressive driving

Railway crossing safety

Seat belts

Traffic flow in congested areas

Cost analysis

Fire extinguishers & first-aid kit in vehicles

General maintenance

Pre-start checks, how to ensure they are actually done and the paperwork is not just filled out

Example of Situational Analysis Topics

Policy
Safe Procedure Awareness
Induction
Training or Education
Driving – A Component of Employee Professional Development Plans
Family Member/Other Driver WRRS Plan/Education
Training Needs Analysis Process
Budget for Safety
Vehicle Selection
Crash Reporting
Crash Recording
Crash Investigation Process
Crash Data Analysis
Maintenance of Vehicles
Risk Assessments
Journey Planning
Fatigue Management Plan
Interventions
Communication Strategies
Employee Consultation Process
Licence Checks
Mobile Phone Use
Infringement Monitoring
Repeat Offender Process
Recruitment and Selection Process
Driver/Organisational Profiles

Other topics can be covered as required or identified during the Situational Analysis process.